James Monroe to Thomas Jefferson

Richmond March 21. 1802

Dear Sir

When lately in Albemarle I found the complition of a chimney in my house delayed by the want of abt. 350 bricks, which were not to be had in the neighbourhood. As the number is too small to burn a kiln on purpose to obtain them and as it may possibly be in my power to replace them some time hereafter when you may have occasion, if convenient, I will thank you for as many. Sincerely I am yr. friend & servantJas. Monroe
